

MONTANA GOLD MINING COMPANY INC.

NEWS RELEASE

JANUARY 5, 2011

CNSX SYMBOL: MGM

Montana Gold to Commence Trading on January 5, 2011

London, Ontario – Montana Gold Mining Company Inc. (“Montana Gold” or the “Company”) will commence trading January 5, 2011 on the Canadian National Stock Exchange (“CNSX”) under the trading symbol MGM. Montana Gold was formerly called Gold Reef International, Inc. and the common shares were recently consolidated on a 10 old for 1 new share basis.

Montana Gold is led by an experienced management team who have over 50 years combined experience in operating publicly traded mineral exploration or development companies. Montana Gold was formed to acquire and re-examine gold and silver projects, on a selective basis, that have previously reached advanced exploration, underground development or past production

The Company has already optioned two past producing Montana gold mines, the Silver Bell and the St. Lawrence, both of which produced in the early 1900's and have been worked intermittently since. A National Instrument 43-101 compliant geologic report has been commissioned on the Silver Bell and St. Lawrence which are located in close proximity to each other, and about 3 miles southwest of Virginia City, Montana. Exploration will commence on these properties after completion of the report and in accordance with the report recommendations.

The Company is interested in additional gold projects, particularly those located within the mining friendly State of Montana, USA, and a property submittal protocol has been provided on the Company website at www.montanagoldmining.com.
